

THE AMERICAN LEGION
CONSTITUTION OF CARROLLTON, GA POST NO. 143,
DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in all wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization will be CARROLL POST NO.143 THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA.

Section1. Eligibility to membership in this Post will be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

Section2. Applications for membership will be in writing under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Post Executive Committee.

Section3. All applications for membership will be acted upon at the next Post meeting following the making of such application, and will, at such meeting, be accepted, rejected, or referred for further investigation and consideration. If a majority of the members present cast their vote against the acceptance of said application, then such application will be recorded as rejected...

Section4. Any member of this Post may be expelled for cause by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at the regular meeting of the Post after charges are preferred under oath in writing, and a fair trial had upon the same in accordance with procedure prescribed by National and adopted by the Department Executive Committee.

Section5. A member who has been expelled or suspended from this Post for any cause may be reinstated to membership by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership present in a Post meeting, and the payment of current dues for the year in which the reinstatement occurs.

Section6. No person who has been expelled by a Post will be admitted to membership in this Post, without the consent of the expelling Post, except that where such consent has been asked for and denied by such Post ,that person may then appeal to the Executive Committee of the Department of the expelling Post for permission to apply for membership in this Post, and will be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

Section7. This Post is a non-smoking and non-alcohol-based organization.

ARTICLE V - OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

Section1. The administrative affairs of this Post of The American Legion will, except as may be otherwise provided by the By-Laws, be under the supervision of an Executive Committee which will consist of the elected officers of the Post. The term of office of members of the Executive Committee will be for one (1) year. This Post, by its By-Laws, may provide for such standing committees as the business of the organization may require.

Section2. The officers of this Post will consist of a Commander, a Senior Vice-Commander, four (4) Junior Vice-Commanders, and a Judge Advocate all of whom will be nominated from the floor at the meeting preceding the annual election. An Adjutant, a Finance Officer, a Chaplain, a Historian, a Service Officer, and a Sergeant-At-Arms will be appointed by the Commander. The Chair of the Standing Committees may be members of the Executive Committee with voice and no vote. The commander shall assign one of four pillars of the American legion to each of the Jr Vice Commanders. The duties of said Jr Vice Commanders regarding the four pillars shall be to educate the Post and the public regarding the four pillars and to administer the four pillars in all regards.

Section3. All officers will be elected annually, and they will hold office until their successors are dully installed or as otherwise provided. Any officer or Executive Committee members may be removed for inefficiency by the Executive Committee, a two-thirds (2/3) vote of said committee is necessary to affect such removal.

Section4. Every member of this Post in good standing will be eligible to hold office in this Post.

Section5. The duties of officers and the Executive Committee will be those usually pertaining to such officers or committee members as further provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VI – FINANCE

Section1. The revenue of this Post will be derived from the membership or initiation fees, from annual membership dues and from such sources as may be recommended by the Post Executive Committee.

Section2. The amount of such membership or initiation fees and the amount of such annual Post dues will be fixed and determined by this Post, for the ensuring year.

Section3. The Post will pay to the Department of Georgia Headquarters the National and Departmental annual per capita dues for each membership transmitted to the Department.

ARTICLE VII - AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Section1. This Post recognizes an auxiliary organization to be known as American Legion at Carrollton of Post No. 143 Department of Georgia.

Section2. Membership in the Auxiliary will be governed by the National Executive Committee of the American Legion.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENTS

Section1. This Constitution is adopted subject to the provisions of the National Constitution of The American Legion and the Constitution of the Department of Georgia, The American Legion. Amendments to the National Constitution or Department Constitution, which conflicts with any provisions hereof, will be regarded as automatically repealing or modifying the provisions of this Constitution to the extent of such conflict.

Section2. This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of Post 143 attending a regular Post meeting. The proposed amendment must be submitted in writing and read at the next preceding regular Post meeting. Written notice via USPS or Electronically will be given to all members at least ten (10) days in advance of the date when such amendment is to be voted upon, notifying said members that at such meeting a proposal to amend the Constitution is to be voted upon.

THE AMERICAN LEGION
BY-LAWS OF CARROLLTON, GA POST NO. 143
DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA

ARTICLE I

Section1. The Post existing under these By-Laws is to be known as the CARROLL POST NO. 143, THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA.

Section2. The objectives of this Post are set forth in the Constitution.

ARTICLE II – MANAGEMENT

Section1. The government and management of the Post are entrusted to the Executive Committee as established in the Post Constitution.

Section2. The Executive Committee will consist of the elected officers of the Post who will be elected annually at least fifteen (15) and not more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of the Department Convention. All elections of officers will be by written ballot and the candidate or candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be elected to the respective office or offices for which they are candidates. In the event an office is uncontested, that is to say there is only one candidate for that office, that office may be filled by voice vote or raising of the hands of the members. Prior to said vote, the commander shall ask all members to affirm by raising of the hands that they are members of good standing of the post. Only members of good standing shall be allowed to vote. The commander shall then ask for a motion that the post waive the written ballot for the election of a candidate for the uncontested office. Said vote shall require only a simple plurality to be carried. If said motion carries, the commander shall proceed with the voice vote or raising of the hands. Installation of officers will be at the first Post meeting following the Department Convention.

Section3. All vacancies existing in the Executive Committee, or in any office of the Post from any cause, other than the expiration of the term, will be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of the committee. A person so appointed will hold office for the unexpired term of the member of the committee or officer whom they succeed. A vacancy will exist when a member or officer is absent from their Post for a continuous period considered by the Executive Committee to be detrimental to the interest of the Post.

ARTICLE III - SALE, ACQUISITION, TRANSFER, ADDITION OR TRANSFER OF PROPERTY

Section1. The sale, acquisition, transfer, or addition of real property shall be accomplished only by the vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regularly scheduled legal meeting; provided, that the proposed sale, acquisition or transfer of said real property shall have been submitted to the members of the Post by written notice via USPS or electronically at least thirty (30) days prior to the regularly scheduled meeting at which said vote shall be recorded. The terms of said proposed sale, acquisition or transfer shall be read from the floor to the members at the regularly scheduled Post meeting immediately preceding the meeting at which said vote shall be recorded.

Section2 THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA, CARROLL POST #143, INC. shall notify The American Legion Department of Georgia prior to negotiating the purchase or selling real property.

ARTICLE IV - POST EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section1. The Post Executive Committee will meet for organization and such business as may come before it at the call of the Post Commander within 10 days after the installation of the new officers. Thereafter the Post Executive Committee will meet at the call of the Post Commander at least every three months, when the Commander deems it necessary, and four (4) members of the Committee will constitute a quorum thereof.

Section2. The Post Executive Committee will hire such employees as may be necessary; will authorize and approve all expenditures; will require adequate bonds from all persons having the custody of post funds; and generally, will have charge of and be responsible for the management of the affairs of this Post.

ARTICLE V - DUTIES OF POST OFFICERS

Post 143 Committees and Travel Policy

As Established by the Standard Operating Procedures

1. Executive Committee: The Commander shall be the Chair and in the commander's absence the SR Vice Commander shall be the replacement. Purpose is to address and work with issues of the Post, plan for upcoming meetings, etc. It will consist of the elected officers and Committee Chairs. The Executive Committee shall meet within 10 days after their election, and immediately preceding their term of office. Special meetings may be held upon reasonable notice at the call of the Post Commander, or upon request of a simple majority of the Executive Committee. With three days' notice to all committee members, the Commander may call a meeting of the Executive Committee. Four members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum. Issues coming to vote concerning finances, property, or changes to the Constitution or By Laws must be addressed to and by only elected Officers of the Post. The immediate past commander in good standing shall not serve on the Executive Committee, but shall at the Executive Committee's request, chair a committee of all active past commanders in good standing as a resource for the Executive Committee to evaluate and make recommendations to the Executive Committee upon specific issues assigned by the Executive Committee.

2. Nominating Committee: Purpose is to provide a slate of officers to be voted upon at the annual election and to assist the commander, upon the commander's request in selecting committee members. The committee shall serve for one year and be composed of members in good standing that will include active past commanders who are not seeking an office that year, and two (2) members elected from the floor. The chair of the committee shall be the immediate past commander and if that person is unable to serve, the chair shall be elected by members of said committee.

3. Americanism Committee: The purpose is to carry out the obligations embodied in the Preamble to the American Legion Constitution. The Carroll County Veterans Memorial Park relationship with the Post falls under this Committee. Post support for Baseball, Boys State, the Oratorical program, and Scouting are examples of responsibilities of this Committee.

4. Children and Youth Committee: Purpose is developing and supporting programs within the community that will stimulate support and strengthen other organizations and agencies providing services for children and youth. This Committee will establish and promote a relationship with the local JROTC programs. It will develop and promote Flag Education programs with schools, children's groups, and Parks.

5. Finance Committee: Purpose is the handling of the financial affairs of the Post. It should establish a financial policy that will keep the Post solvent and furnish it with sufficient funds to carry on beneficial activities approved by the Post. The Fundraising activities should be guided by this Committee. The Finance Officer shall be the chair of this Committee. The annual budget shall be developed by this Committee and presented to the Executive Committee for the coming year in order to be presented to the Post for consideration/adjustment and approval prior to the installation of officers for the New Year.

6. Audit Committee: The Judge Advocate shall be the chair of the audit committee and shall appoint two (2) other members who shall not be members of the Finance Committee, to serve on said Audit Committee. The duties of the Audit Committee shall be to provide oversight of the financial reporting process, the system of internal controls, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The commander also may assign other audit duties should the need arise. The audit committee shall also, when it deems appropriate, make recommendations to the Executive Committee for improvements and modifications to the system of internal financial controls.

7. Honor Guard Committee: Purpose is supporting the needs, program, and training of the Honor Guard. The Post Commander shall appoint one member as Chairman of the Honor Guard. Duties will include, communicating with the Guard members, maintaining inventory of all property of the Guard, and coordinating training, uniforms, and travel arrangements for flag services. The Chair will be the primary contact with the GA National Guard. The Chaplain (or assistant Chaplain) will establish relations with local funeral homes, communicate with them on a regular basis, and when a Flag Team is requested, the Chaplain will contact a Team Leader who will then assemble a Team. The Chair will establish a desired number of members needed and when the group reaches this number a waiting list will be formed awaiting an opening. Uniform items purchased by the Post remain the property of the Post and must be turned into the Chair when a member cease being active. The Committee may establish a Rifle Team and Color Guard. The Chair should appoint Team Leaders for the various teams that are formed.

8. Legislative & Protocol Committee: Purpose is to maintain watch on activities of the National and Department Legislative activities, what the Legion favors, opposes, and should be ready to initiate action in support of these positions when requested by the national or department organization. It will also assist in setting the rules of etiquette that the sergeant-of-arms will enforce at the Post.

9. Membership Committee: The Sr. Vice Commander shall be the Chair of this Committee. Purpose is developing and implementing programs aimed at recruiting, retaining (renewals) and revitalizing the membership and shall have charge of all matters pertaining to the membership of the Post, including transfers, reinstatements and eligibility of members. The committee may recommend eligible members for Emeritus status in the Post. (This title can be awarded members who have served as an officer of the Post for at least 5 years.) Persons granted these titles are authorized to participate fully in committees, but without vote. This committee promotes training opportunities for members in programs like the Extension Institute.

10. Publicity Committee: Purpose is communicating the “story” about the activities of the Post to the community at large. It will use the various mediums available (News articles, radio, TV, and website) to provide information about the programs of the Post. A primary goal is to create an atmosphere of understanding within the local community of the aims and purposes of the Post. It should publish a Post Newsletter a minimum of three times each year.

11. Service Committee: Purpose is to support the Service Officer and Chaplain with the accomplishment of their mission by being active within the community in searching for opportunities where the Post can be of service to Veterans and their families. This Committee shall search regularly throughout the membership for persons in need of special attention and give comfort and assistance to members and their families when sick or bereaved, to visit hospitalized veterans and to assist at veteran’s funerals where appropriate. The Service Officer and Chaplain will be members of this committee and keep it informed of needs that they become aware of.

12. Welcoming Committee: Purpose is developing procedures within the Post that will ensure that all visitors are made to feel welcome. It should develop and implement installation programs for new members of the Post that will recognize and introduce them to the Post. This Committee will assist new members in locating the best programs of the Post for them to quickly become involved. The committee is responsible for set up of meeting room and planning for the evening meal. The Sergeant-at Arms will chair this committee.

BUDGET RESPONSIBILITY OF ALL COMMITTEES:

The Chairperson of each Committee shall have a planning meeting prior to each fiscal year. The financial needs should be delivered to the Finance Committee for inclusion in the budget planning process for the coming year.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS:

The duties of the officers are clearly stated in the By Laws of the post.

Additional information can be found in the American Legion officer’s guide found at the national web site.

<http://www.legion.org/>

Auxiliary

The residing chapter President and Vice President or designated member shall be members of the Executive Committee.

Sons of The American Legion

The Squadron Commander and Adjutant of the Squadron shall be members of the Executive Committee.

Part II

TRAVEL POLICY

This policy is intended to give members of American Legion Post #143 guidelines in determining and approving official travel of officers, delegates, and members for reimbursement of expenses incurred. Since the Post has limited funds from which to pay travel e.g., mileage, lodging, meals, and miscellaneous expenses, it is not the intention to fully compensate a member or their spouse for travel. Nor is the intent of the policy for a member to make a gain from travel.

1. AUTHORIZATION

A travel budget shall be established at the beginning of each year that sets forth specific amounts for travel. The Commander and Honor Guard Chair shall submit a travel plan for the coming year to the Finance Committee prior to budget preparation for the coming budget year. It will be the responsibility of the Commander and Honor Guard Chair to manage the travel account throughout the year. The Finance Committee must approve any expense beyond the budget before payment can be made. Permission to travel, for which (full or partial reimbursement is approved. shall be authorized by the Post Commander prior to the trip.

2. REGISTRATION EXPENSES

The Post shall reimburse the cost of registration to an official national, department (state) or district meeting for members authorized by the Post to attend.

3. MILEAGE

The Post shall reimburse members for authorized travel at the then existing rate established from time to time by the U.S. Internal Revenue rate for business travel reimbursement. A mileage log is to be submitted. Personal miles incurred by the member once he is at the destination will not be reimbursed.

- a. Local/District/State/National Meeting- Approved meetings such as District and State officer meetings where carpooling is most appropriate, the designated driver will be reimbursed for the full round trip. In the event an individual, who is authorized to travel, but does not take advantage of carpooling; will not be compensated for his mileage. The Commander or Honor Guard Chair, or their designees, will solicit the designated carpool driver from among those traveling.

4. LODGING

Members, in most cases, will not incur lodging expenses while on official business except for the state convention. In the event lodging is required, it must first be approved in advance by the Finance Committee. Members will use the minimum rate accommodation when available. Members will be reimbursed at the single rate unless sharing a room with a fellow council member. Lodging for the state convention is covered under a separate section. Receipts for lodging are required for reimbursement.

5. MEALS

Members approved for travel either for the day or overnight will be reimbursed at the following maximum rates provided the expense was incurred:

- Breakfast $10 provided the member left his home prior to 7:00 am.
- Lunch $15
- Dinner $25 provided the member returned home after 7:00 pm.

These rates would also apply for a meal that is an integral part of the meeting or affair. (Receipts for each meal are required).

6. STATE & NATIONAL CONVENTION

The Post shall reimburse official delegates to the state convention as a lump sum payment, minus registration, based on the costs incurred for meals (noted above), and other expenses that might apply. Approval will be at any regularly scheduled business meeting by a simple majority of the members present and voting. The Post is expected/encouraged to send up to two official delegates to the Department convention each year and may choose two alternates as Post finances allow. The location varies throughout the state. The registration fee covers the State cost of conducting the convention. The delegate must submit additional expenses for hotel accommodations and other meals (rates for meals noted above-less time schedule) for reimbursement by the Post.

Spouses of official delegates may accompany the delegates to the state convention. Private room accommodations at the double rate are approved, as well as additional registration fees, if required. All other expenses for the spouse are the delegate’s responsibility.

Delegates shall make use of accommodation arranged by the Department. In the event those accommodations are full, similar arrangements can be made.

Carpooling to the State Convention is strongly encouraged to keep costs to a minimum. In the event only two delegates are attending, carpooling is mandatory for reimbursement. The Commander will solicit from both delegates one to serve as the official driver if carpooling is arranged. Special situations for individual travel must be brought to the Finance Committee for approval.

AMENDMENTS

The Standard Operating Procedures may be amended at any regular meeting of the Post with a simple majority vote of the members present. Proposed amendments must first be presented to the Executive Committee. They must approve and then present the proposal in detail to the Post for consideration.
