

Veterans: Will you share your experience?

Thomas Konradt is participating in the Veterans History Project at the Library of Congress for his Eagle Scout Project.

Volunteers record interviews with Veterans about their service. Veterans can share whatever aspects or stories they want.

These important oral histories won't be lost, and are stored in Washington DC for researchers and citizens to listen to and learn from

Over 200,000 interviews have been conducted so far

How does it work?

- Contact Thomas Konradt to set up a time to meet tmkonradt@gmail.com, 770-380-1900
- Sign the permission form and fill out a background sheet
- Sit down with Thomas for a recorded conversation of at least 30 minutes